GREENVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY ART EXHIBITS

 October 2025

imagine the possibilities...

William Gallagher | Main Exhibit Gallery

Artist William Gallagher will display his work at the Greenville Public Library during the month of October. Gallagher is a trained fashion illustrator who worked in the jewelry industry for two and a half decades as a designer/technical illustrator. Gallagher also instructs drawing and art lessons for children and adults at the Library.

For more of his work, find him on Facebook at Gallagher Illustrations and on Instagram: @billgallagher226artist

Beatriz Lopez & Daryl Rathbun | Friends Wall

Beatriz Lopez and Daryl Rathbun will be displaying their drawings and artwork in a joint exhibit on the Friends Wall in October.

Daryl Rathbun has been drawing since high school. Daryl enjoys drawing bright colorful designs with lots of detail work. He primarily works with markers and paint markers on paper. Daryl spends his time working on drawings and drinking iced coffee.

Beatriz Lopez has been drawing since the first grade when a bully forced her to draw a whale. Now Bea draws for pleasure and not pressure. Bea enjoys drawing people from her favorite tv shows and sometimes her cat.

RI State Archive
Pop-Up Exhibit
Friday, Oct. 24
10:00 am - 12:00 pm

The Rhode State Archives Wild Weather exhibit will be on display on Friday, October 24th from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm in the lobby. Archives representatives will be on site to answer questions about the exhibit and archives.

Wild Weather tells the story of how Rhode Island has prepared for, reacted to, and recovered from weather-related impacts dating as far back as colonial times up to and including recent years. The exhibit includes archival documents and objects from severe weather events throughout Rhode Island's history, including Hurricane Carol, the Blizzard of 1978, and the flooding that occurred in 2010. The opening of the exhibit comes just days after the 85th anniversary of the Hurricane of 1938.

AN ARTFUL CONVERSATION

Thursday, Oct. 9 | 6:30 pm

Join us for An Artful Conversation with Beatriz and Daryl on Thursday, October 9th at 6:30 pm.

During an informal interview, artists discuss their inspirations, techniques, and personal stories and take questions from attendees. Light refreshments served.

Please register.
